

LOOKING FOR A GIFT TO INSPIRE YOUR CLIENTS OR PORTFOLIO COMPANIES?

Are you a VC, law firm, or other professional services firm trying to find a unique gift for your most promising portfolio companies or clients?

The Computer History Museum offsite package, a time-honored tradition for growing tech startups and teams at Google, Ooyala, and others, is the ideal gift for an emerging company to learn from the legacy of industry giants.

They'll join legends like Bill Gates, Steve Wozniak, and Paul Graham, who often walk these halls to take in technology's rich history in the heart of Silicon Valley. The offsite program provides a wonderful opportunity for teams to enjoy the museum and its collection of computing history from the last 2,000 years and is designed to educate and enlighten the next generation.

Whether they are facing challenges starting off, scaling to the next level, or pivoting to a new model, your portfolio company or client can see inspiring examples of how others faced these opportunities and challenges—and made history.

The offsite package includes:

- Admission and thematic self-guided tour of Computer History Museum for teams of up to 10 people (Contact us for larger groups)
- 10% discount at CHM store
- 10% discount for drinks and food from CHM Café
- Contact us for other upgrades (e.g. conference room space)

Thematic Self-Guided Tours:

The museum is a treasure trove of inspiring history, from fun innovations like Atari's original Pong prototype to Intel's game-changing 4004 microprocessor from the 1970s. Enjoy a self-guided walking tour that will provide the perfect dose of inspiration for a team's stage of growth or industry
